BRITTANY & SPAIN TRIPS

Those of you that had booked for the Brittany trips will know by now that both the Dart Valley Stompers and Band of Gold trips have been cancelled. The travel agent Wessex Continental put it down to the economic down-turn which is affecting the travel business right across the board.

We have however, replaced the planned Spain trip in October with a return visit to Hotel de l'Ocean in Concarneau, Brittany (for those that went last year we have requested that the fish dishes be reduced in the hotel). The excursions have been varied and we have also built in a cider tasting trip (which will please the band!).

However, since doing this I have received a number of questions about why the hotel and place have been changed. Wessex Continental thought that the hotel and facilities at Hotel de l'Ocean were of a higher standard than the hotel in Lannion. But, if you feel strongly about the change of hotel I would suggest you contact John Hill on 01752 846880 with your suggestions as at this time its not to late to change the hotel.

We would strongly urge you to BOOK EARLY as again a number of people have told me that they had intended to book for April, but hadn't done so. With the economic situation as it currently is, all the service industries are noticing a down-turn in bookings, and events are being cancelled. As usual I have enclosed a leaflet on the forthcoming trip to Brittany in October. For those of you that didn't go last year we had a fantastic time at the Hotel in Brittany.

NEW RECORDING!

The band return to Bude Jazz Club on 1st March and look forward to seeing you all there. This will be the gig for our latest recording which will be taking place on that night. Currently only Jeremy knows that the recording is going ahead as the band get very nervous if they know that a recording is taking place in particular one member of the band (So mum's the word until the evening!!) Note from Ed, I wouldn't have even told Jeremy but he saw the email to the recording engineer!!
