GRAHAM TREVARTON

Some of you will have heard already that Graham was taken into hospital with chest pains in the early hours of Sunday 28th August. Doctors have now confirmed he didn't have a heart attack but a blockage in his arteries. As I type this newsletter (1st September) he has had his Angiogram this afternoon and had two stents fitted albeit not easy ones but hopefully he'll be home Friday or Saturday. He had been playing with the Dart Valley Saturday evening and was in high spirits laughing and joking and playing well with no signs of being ill which added to the shock early on Sunday morning when Ann his wife called to let me know. Before she left the hospital they had managed to clear the blockage with drugs.

Graham is very disappointed to have missed Bude Jazz Festival this year as he was advised to stay in hospital so that he didn't miss his slot for the Angiogram.

Graham sends his thanks to all of you that have sent messages and for the card that we had at the festival for signatures and messages.

We very much hope that he will be soon be back playing with us again and hope that you bear with us whilst he is recovering.

In the meantime we would like to thank Gethin Liddington in particular for stepping in at very short notice to play the parade, Two Counties and Dart Valley Stompers gigs at Bude Jazz Festival. I'll keep you posted of any further developments.

DART VALLEY STOMPERS 11TH ANNIVERSARY WEEKEND

I'm delighted to able to let you know that this weekend has sold out! We have availability at the Redcliffe Lodge Hotel which is offered on a Bed and Breakfast basis with dinner at the hotel. You also have use of the hotel facilities. We also maintain a waiting list; however, we give priority to those staying at the Redcliffe Lodge Hotel to be moved over to the hotel if a suitable cancellation arises.

We also offer session tickets at £10 per session per person - these are limited due to the restrictions of Health and Safety and Fire Regulations.

At the time of writing we do not know if Graham will be with us at the Redcliffe Hotel but we very much hope so.

OCTOBER!!

We apologise if October looks a little thin on the ground but Jeremy and I are off on holiday to Cyprus for 10 days! (Wow I haven't been able to get him away for that long in a long time, must be over 15 years!!) We are very much looking forward to relaxing and recharging our batteries ready for the year ahead!
