EDDIE EDWARDS

Some of you may have heard that Eddie recently had a fall and has been in hospital. I'm pleased to advise that he is now out of hospital and has a shiny new hip!

He tells me that he is making steady progress and is up and about on crutches, although he's not very happy as he's not allowed into a car for six weeks! He is hoping to be back with us at Bude Jazz Festival. (Next time Eddie take more water with it! Ed). However, since returning home he has contracted shingles which is really painful.

This all happened two days before the final rehearsal for the band's new CD so the recording has been put on ice. However, there may be something new and different on the horizon instead of the CD – watch this space!!!

We are deeply grateful to Howard Williams stepping into the breach to cover Eddie's gigs. Howard is not new to The Dart Valley Stompers team as he has been depping for Eddie whilst he's been on holiday.

There is a new publicity photo of the band that we are really pleased with (which had already been booked before Eddie's fall but we went ahead with it anyway) see below:-
